High School Hockey Round-Up

Wild Split Pair

The Powerview-Sagkeeng Wild used a four-goal third period to top the Louis Riel Voyageurs 6-4 on Nov. 20.

The Wild were outscored 3-1 in the first period, with Hunter Neepinak the lone scorer. They scored the only goal of the second. Sebastian Guimond lit the lamp at 7:03, making it 3-2 heading into the third.

After Louis Riel scored 19 seconds in to make it 4-2, the Wild stormed back with four unanswered tallies. Neepinak and Guimond added their second of the afternoon. They were joined on the scoresheet by Landon Reid and Aiden Lavigne. Lavigne scored the game-winner at 5:42.

On Nov. 23, the Wild fell 8-3 to the Lorette Scorpions. After Lavigne opened the scoring 5:59 into the first period, the Scorpions scored six straight to take a commanding 6-1 lead midway through the third. Chevy Bruyere and Connor Bruyere scored late goals, but so did the Scorpions, to make the final 8-3.

The Wild visit Warren on Dec. 1 and host Murdoch MacKay on Dec. 4 at 4 p.m. Neepinak is tied for seventh in the division with 11 goals.

Panthers Streak Snapped

The Pinawa Panthers had not tasted defeat since opening night, but that seven-game winning streak came to an end against Murdoch MacKay on Nov. 22. The Panthers fell 4-1, with Gunnar Veilleux breaking the goose egg at 16:30 of the third period.

A slow start and finish doomed the Panthers against the division-leading Kildonan East Reivers on Nov. 24. The Panthers surrendered the first four goals in the first period and the last three in the third to fall 9-6.

Down 4-0 eight minutes into the game, the Panthers scored two before the break to find themselves down 5-2 after one period. Jack Reynolds and Jakob Morgan were the Panther scorers.

Morgan and Myles Rosnow drew Pinawa to within one in the second before the Reivers replied to make it 6-4. Parker Thomas scored before the second intermission to make it 6-5 Reivers.

Veilleux completed the comeback early in the third, but the Reivers scored three unanswered goals to ice a 9-6 win. Morgan finished with a four-point night.

The Panthers visit Windsor Park on Dec. 1.

The high-flying Panthers boast five players averaging more than a point per game. Before Nov. 24, Lachlan Cuthbert led the team after nine games with 13 goals and 23 points, while his 10 assists were tied with Rosnow for tops on the team.

Close behind is Jeadys Dancyt, who has 11 goals and nine assists, and Reynolds, who has 13 goals and five assists.

Sabres Hit .500

The Springfield Sabres have a 5-5 record after splitting a pair of games last week.

On Nov. 20, they welcomed the St. John's Ravenscourt Eagles to town and spotted them with a 1-0 lead after one period.

The home team took over in the second. Liam Johnston scored two goals and Parker Fazio one to give the Sabres a 3-1 lead after two periods.

Cam Osborne stretched that lead to 4-1 less than one minute into the third period. The Eagles soon replied, but Johnston completed his hat trick at 7:41 to seal the win.

A day later, the Jeane Sauve Olympiens came to town. Following a scoreless first period, the Olympiens scored two goals less than a minute apart early in the second to take an early lead. Brady Rach halved the lead on Max Sholdra's pass late in the second to make it 2-1 heading into the third.

With Springfield on the power play early in the third, Osborn tied it at 1:46. Johnston and Evan Suchar earned the help. That sent the teams to overtime, with the Olympiens winning with 30 seconds left.

The homestand continues on Dec. 5 against the first-pace Gabrielle Roy-Pointe des Chenes Cavaliers. Game time is 4 p.m.

Johnston leads the team with nine goals and 13 points after 10 games. He is tied for fifth in the division in goals and seventh in points. Mason Harmatiuk is tops with five assists.

Habs top Barons

The École Edward Schreyer Barons fell 4-2 to the CPET Canadiens on Nov. 23.

Down 1-0 after 15 minutes, the Barons tied it at 2:56 of the second thanks to Brady Szajewski. Kane Zarichanski and Vaughn Senebald earned the assists.

The Habs scored the next two to take a 3-1 lead late in the game, but Eric Mroz scored unassisted at 18:13 to make it 3-2. CPET scored an insurance marker at 18:55 to ice the win.

Warren beat ESS 5-4 on Nov. 27. The Barons host the Maples Marauders on Nov. 30 at 4 p.m.

Through 11 games, Senebald and Zarichanski are tied for the team lead with 22 points. They are tied for seventh in division scoring. Szajewski, who missed two games, is close behind with 19 points. He is tied for twelfth in the division.

Senebald's and Szajewski's 11 goals are seventh-best in the league. Zarichanski is in eighth spot with 12 assists.

Selects fall to Bruins

By Tony Zerucha

A bad second period against the Winnipeg Bruins sent the Eastman Selects to a 6-4 loss on Nov. 22 and their third consecutive defeat.

Eric Cote gave the Selects the early lead 4:54 into the contest. His seventh of the season was assisted by Caleb Normandeau and Nathan Forster. However, the Bruins scored the next four to take a 4-1 lead early into the third.

Eastman outscored the Bruins 3-2 in the third. Jeremiah Warkentine, Hayden Kochen and Cote scored to make the final 6-4. Eastman outshot Winnipeg 41-34. Daniel Banman took the loss.

Special teams were the difference. The Bruins went three for five on the power play and killed all four chances against. St.-Georges' Finley Titterton was suspended for three games after being assessed a match penalty for attempting to injure a Thistle player in the first period. The Bruins scored their first goal on the ensuing power play.

The Selects sit in seventh place in the AAA U18 league.

Calyb Moore leads the Selects with 13 assists and 20 points after 18 games. Cote and Mario Gagnon are top with eight goals each. Moore's 20 points are eleventh-best in the league. His assists total is tied for seventh-best.
