CLIPPER SPORTS

High School Hockey Round-Up

ESS Girls Edge Clippers

The École Edward Schreyer Barons' girls started the New Year off right by edging the Kelvin Clippers 2-1 on Jan. 8.

Down 1-0, the Barons drew even at 9:07 of the first on Serena Gorski's unassisted marker. Following a scoreless second period, Lauren Ingeberg was the hero, scoring at 4:40 of the third period to give the Barons the win. Gorski earned an assist.

Emily Kay starred in net for the Barons, making 28 saves. Beausejour fired 13 pucks the other way.

The Barons host Bellevue on Jan. 17 at 3:45 p.m. and the Dakota Lancers on Jan. 18 at 4 p.m.

SCI Girls Game PPD

The Springfield Sabres girls Jan. 14 game was postponed. A makeup date hasn't been announced. They host the Kelvin Clippers on Jan. 17 at 3:30 p.m.

Sabres Topple Olympiens

The Springfield Sabres blasted the Jeanne Sauve Olympiens 8-3 on Jan. 12.

The game was tied 2-2 entering the third frame. Liam Johnston and Parker Fazio scored for the Sabres. Springfield erupted for six goals in the third period. Fazio added three more to make it a four-goal game. Cam Osborne, Ethan Haarsma and Eric Bartel also lit the lamp. Fazio added an assist for a five-point afternoon, while Osborne had three.

Springfield visits Leo Remillard on Jan. 17 and hosts the Kelvin Clippers on Jan. 23 at 4 p.m.

Panthers Climbing

The Pinawa Panthers began 2024 with two wins. Now in third place, they are four points out of first.

On Jan. 9, the Panthers topped the high-scoring Kildonan East Reivers 7-2. After the Reivers opened the scoring at 7:58 of the first period, the Panthers netted three goals in five minutes. Jaedys Dancyc scored two, and Lachlan Cuthbert added one. The teams traded goals in the second to make it 4-2 heading into the third. Noah Orvis tallied for Pinawa.

The Panthers distanced themselves in the third with three unanswered scores. Orvis, Cuthbert and Myles Rosnow found the back of the net. Cuthbert finished with six points, while Dancyc and Rosnow had three each.

Pinawa hosted the École Edward Schreyer Barons on Jan. 12. Dancyc opened the scoring at 1:43 of the first with assists to Orvis and Remi Hoffman. Baron Kane Zarichanski responded at 3:48. Carson Speculak and Theoren Skiba picked up assists.

Cuthbert scored two in a row to make it a 3-1 contest early in the second. The Barons took six minutes to tie it again. Zarichanski and Miles Armit scored. Skiba assisted on both to make it a three-point afternoon.

Pinawa took over from there. Cuthbert completed his hat trick before the end of the second and added a fourth in the third. Two of those goals were shorthanded. Jack Reynolds and Dancyc also scored. Cuthbert finished with five points, while Dancyc added four. Orvis and Gunnar Veilleux had two each.

Pinawa has two weeks off before hosting the Powerview-Sagkeeng Wild on Jan. 26 at 5 p.m. Four of their remaining five games are at home, save for a Feb. 7 date at the last-place Maples Marauders.
