High School Hockey Round-Up

Sabres Girls Surging

The Springfield Sabres girls squad are on a roll. Coach Natasha Kostenko's club has won four straight games, with the last two being shutouts.

On Nov. 28, the Sabres squeezed by the Kelvin Clippers 1-0. Miley Sorin's second goal of the season in the first period was the lone score. Springfield outshot Kelvin 28-17 to make a winner of Grace Wozney.

Sorin and Wozney were at it again on Dec. 1 when the Beausejour Barons came to town. Sorin's shorthanded goal at 9:35 of the second period gave the Sabres a 2-0 lead that held through the final whistle. Chloe Mueller scored the opening marker from Alexis Campbell at 5:18 of the second.

Springfield outshot Beausejour 36-9. Their penalty killing was supreme, as they stopped six opportunities, including the first five of the game.

Forward Lily Hurley was named Division 3 Player of the Week for her three-point showing in a recent 7-5 win over Murdoch MacKay. In addition to her two goals and assist, Hurley was credited for several great plays and her support of her teammates.

SCI's next home game is the Fill the Rink Classic on Dec. 15 at 4 p.m. Fans are encouraged to be loud and bring cash and non-perishable food items to support the Springfield Food Bank and local Christmas hampers.

Barons Girls Drop Pair

Before losing to the Sabres, the Barons fell 6-1 to Murdoch MacKay on Nov. 27. Lauren Ingeberg scored the Barons' goal.

Beausejour visits the CPET Canadiennes on Dec. 8 at 4 p.m.

Wild Split Pair

The Powerview-Sagkeeng Wild couldn't hold onto an early lead against the powerful Kildonan East Reivers on Nov. 27. Goals from Hunter Neepinak and Connor Bruyere had the hosts up 2-1 after the first period, but from there, it was all Reivers, as they scored five unanswered goals to win 6-2.

The Wild rebounded nicely with a 6-5 win over the Warren Wildcats on Dec. 1.

Panthers Back In Win Column

The Pinawa Panthers stopped their two-game losing streak with a 4-1 victory over the Lorette Scorpions on Nov. 30. Jaedys Dancyt was in on every goal, posting a hat trick and assist. Lachlan Cuthbert also scored.

The Panthers host Louis Riel on Dec. 12 at 4:30 p.m.

Sabres Back From Chicago

The Springfield Sabres resumed their schedule on Dec. 5 following a visit to Chicago for the Thanksgiving Classic.

While they went 1-3 in the Windy City, Springfield finished strong with a 1-0 shutout of Chicago North. Cam Osborne scored the game-winning goal in the third, while Matt Lidgett earning the shutout.

Osborne also scored in a 5-3 loss to the Winnipeg Twins on Nov. 25. Max Sholdra and Liam Johnston tallied in the third to tie the game at 3-3, but the Twins scored two late to edge the Sabres.

The Sabres host Sanford on Dec. 12 at 4 p.m.

Barons Pound Marauders

The Ecole Edward Schreyer Barons had a week of extremes. It began in Warren on Nov. 27 with a match-up against the Wildcats. Kane Zarichanski gave the Barons the early lead at 5:44 of the first. The Wildcats tied it up less than three minutes later.

Crosby Liske opened the second period with an early tally to restore the Barons' advantage, but the hosts pumped in three straight to take a 4-2 lead. Vaughn Senebald made it 4-3 at 14:02 of the third, but the Wildcats quickly responded. Zarichanski added another late, but the Barons couldn't find the equalizer, falling 5-4. Senebald and Zarichanski had three-point afternoons, with Brady Szajewski contributing a pair of helpers.

The Maples Marauders were happy to get out of town on Nov. 30 after the Barons whipped them 13-0.

Miles Armit led the way with a four-goal, three-assist performance. Close behind was Zarichanski, who contributed three of each for a six-point showing. Szajewski had one goal and five helpers, while Senebald posted two goals and three assists. Theoren Skiba set up four goals. Liske, Eric Mroz and Parker Jakulak also found the back of the net. Overall, 13 Barons had at least one point. Kyle Cromie posted the shutout.

A four-game homestand begins on Dec. 14 at 4 p.m. versus the Kildonan East Reivers.
